Notice No: 1467

Date: 01.06.2026

NOTICE

This is to inform all the students of the college that in order to maintain security and decorum, the college administration has issued the following directives:

1. All the students must carry and prominently wear their valid college Identity Cards at the time while on campus. Security personnel have been instructed to deny entry to any student failing to produce their Identity Cards at the main gate.
2. Students commuting via two-wheelers must always wear helmets with their Identity Cards.
3. During this ongoing summer vacation period, students are permitted on campus only to attend their scheduled classes or official works. Loitering on the college campus after class hours is strictly prohibited.

Non-compliance with these directives will lead to strict disciplinary action.
